

L. Ashley Duel

ASSOCIATE

Ashley Duel is an associate in MendenFreiman's tax controversy and collection, tax planning, estate planning and trust, and business law practice areas. She joined the firm in 2019 and has experience which includes negotiating offers in compromise, filing requests for innocent spouse relief, establishing installment agreements, releasing federal and state tax liens, and representing individuals and businesses during administrative hearings and appeals conferences. She works directly with individuals and businesses to resolve their tax liabilities and devise strategies to reduce their tax costs, penalties, and interest.

Ashley also works closely with clients to develop estate and business plans that implement their long-term goals while minimizing tax and other costs. She has experience drafting wills, trust agreements, and powers of attorney as well as partnership and LLC operating agreements.

Prior to joining MendenFreiman, she was an associate at Gomel Davis & Watson, LLP.

"I enjoy getting to know my clients on a personal and professional level in order to effectively represent them in various legal matters and to be a trusted advisor to them."
